CIRCULAR FROM JULES PAVER. NEW YORK, September 19.—A special the Tribuse from Paris says: "The for the Tribune from Paris says: The Journalt Official to-day publishes a circular from Jules Favre concerning France's representation abroad. He calls attention to the significance of an earlier date named for the convocation of a constitutional for the convocation of a constitutional assembly, and says the first duty of the government is to defend her soil. It is an objection that the government is irregular and without rower. This is admitted, and for this reason is the assembly convoked. France has demanded the cessation of the war, but prefers disaster to dishower. It is bad faith on the part of those who declare war to assert that they dishonor. It is bad faith on the part of those who declare war to assert that they were forced to do so by a majority. A section of the assembly applauded the government's warlike declaration, but some weeks before also applauded Ollivier's peaceful utterances. The majority creatures of personal favoritism considered themselves bound to support even their most perilous contradictions. They refused an examination, and voted in blind confidence, hence the irremediable missing the properties of the Landwehr have been the confidence hence the irremediable missing the posit at the Bank of France, to London banks.

Verioloid is raging among the French prisoners at Madgeburg and Wittenburg. General Failly is not dead, as often reported. He and his staff occupy finely furnished apartments at Mayence, and are sumptuously provided for by the King.

The officers of the Landwehr have been confidence, hence the irremediable mis-fortune. Europe is challenged to demonstrate that the nation, if conversant with her affairs, would have declared war against Prussia. A provisional govern-ment does not deny the national responobligation to repair the evil done. Nevertheless, if Prussia is determined to crush France, she will meet with a desperate resistance, and the world will undersland that Prussia decires the destruction of a mation which is represented by an assembly to the 31st of August.

The Post says that a balloon, with 50,000 letters from Metz, was captured at Neufschiel. In one of them Baraine says his army is well supplied with everything, and the Prussia decires the destruction of a mation which is represented by an assembly to the 31st of August. antion which is represented by freely elected. the peace prospects any better.

Towns, September P. - Yesterday a con-rier from the English cabinet reached Rouen, carrying important dispatches to Spanish Government, first preposed. Objection had been made that the present provisional government at Paris was not regular—a fact that we are furced to admit. The urgency of the case is also presented in strong language.

"It was the lirst duty of the Government of the covernment of the covernment of the covernment of the covernment." ce we convoke an assembly freely chosen to decide. What we ask now is only to give the country our hearts and our blood. Then let France decide, not our transient authority. But immortal France, raising I'self to confront Prussia —France, released from the winding sheet - France, released from the winning sheet.

Stready to immiste itself for right and liberty, disavowing all those exalted political ideas of the old Government.

France has no higher ambition than to remain mixtress of herself, in order to decided the part of the color with the color of the color with the welop her moral and natural resources, and labor to fraternize with her neighbors in the development of civilization. It is this France, recovering its free action that now asks for a cessation of war; bu she will prefer thousand-fold a disaster to on of war; but disbonor. The very ones who awoke the storm now faisely say the country is willing to yield. This may mislead abroad, but not here. France wishes property, commerce and divilization, but prefers disaster to dishonor. It is the duty of France to repair, as far as possible, the evils of the past Government. The elections last year were illusive. France never voted for war with Prussia. No honest man in Europe thinks so. The power now seeking to crush us we must oppose with desperate resistance,
